

Connecting Families in Bullsbrook

Welcome

Connecting Families in Bullsbrook is working in collaboration with local families with children aged birth to 9 years and organisations to provide networks and links to services tailored to family's needs.

Family Circle

Our free family friendly group meet regularly to offer friendship, information and community links. Catering for families with children aged birth - 9 yrs, join us and share in informal chats on how to support your child's development, brainstorm some effective parenting strategies or just enjoy the time out. Free play activities for children and light refreshments are provided.
